ARL Shelter Animals Thank Carly Copley
ARL Alum's Birthday Party Guests Donate a Plethora of Necessities

Carly Copley, the Canine Ambassador for the historic Fairmont Copley Plaza, recently celebrated her 7th birthday, and guests for her party were encouraged to bring items to help shelter animals at the Animal Rescue League of Boston's (ARL) Chandler Street Animal Care and Adoption Center. Carly's guests came through in fine style, and on Tuesday ARL picked up the plethora of donations.

From linens and blankets to toys and treats, donated items filled an entire luggage trolley, and will enhance the shelter experience for ARL's adoptable animals still waiting to find forever homes.

The Fairmont Copley Plaza adopted Carly from ARL, and the relationship between the hotel and the organization has spanned decades.

ARL would like to thank the Fairmont Copley Plaza, Carly's guests, and Boston 25 Anchor Vanessa Welch for their continued support and for being champions for animals!

ABOUT THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE OF BOSTON:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is an unwavering champion for animals in need, committed to keeping them safe and healthy in habitats and homes. Founded in 1899, ARL provides high quality veterinary care, adoption, and rescue services; while also confronting the root causes of animal cruelty and neglect through innovative community programs, police investigations, and public advocacy. In 2016, ARL served more than 17,800 animals throughout Massachusetts. ARL is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. We receive no government funding and rely solely on the generosity of individuals to support programs and services that help animals in need.
