ARL-Boston Rescuing Dozen Cats From Florida Storm Zone Media Invited to ARL's Boston Shelter for Transport Arrival

This afternoon the Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) will be receiving nearly a dozen cats from Florida, this in the wake of Hurricane Irma. The emergency transport request was made by ARL partner organization Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League, located in Palm Beach, FL.

The transport is being made so Peggy Adams can open up space for the hundreds of animals who were hurt during the massive storm.

ARL has contacted numerous national organizations and has made itself available to take in more animals from storm-ravaged areas as recovery efforts continue in the days and weeks ahead.

WHEN: Thursday, September 14, 2017 @ 5:30-6 p.m.

WHERE: ARL's Boston Shelter, 10 Chandler St., Boston

WHO: ARL Shelter Staff

ABOUT THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE OF BOSTON:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is an unwavering champion for animals in need, committed to keeping them safe and healthy in habitats and homes. Founded in 1899, ARL provides high quality veterinary care, adoption, and rescue services; while also confronting the root causes of animal cruelty and neglect through innovative community programs, police investigations, and public advocacy. In 2016, ARL served more than 17,800 animals throughout Massachusetts. ARL is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. We receive no government funding and rely solely on the generosity of individuals to support programs and services that help animals in need.
