Stray Yorkie with No Eyes Seeking Forever Home

The Animal Rescue League of Boston's (ARL) Brewster Animal Care and Adoption Center is looking for a new home for a blind, eight-year-old Yorkshire Terrier who was found wandering the streets of Mashpee.

Given his dark fur, small stature, and the fact that Zack had both eyes surgically removed at some point in his life, it's amazing he wasn't injured during his time on the streets. It's unknown how he ended up as a stray, and he was not microchipped.

Zack was found by Mashpee Animal Control and when no one claimed him after 10 days, he was transferred to ARL in Brewster, where he is now available for adoption.

Although blind, Zack manages a room well, slowly and methodically exploring any new space. He's also extremely friendly and is sure to make a wonderful companion animal.
