ARL to Welcome New England Patriots Cheerleaders

Visit part of community service day

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is excited to host members of the New England Patriots Cheerleader squad on Saturday, December 14 as part of a community service day.

ARL invites members of the media to see Patriots Cheerleaders bring some holiday cheer to animals in need!

Media Availability:

When: Saturday, December 14 from 11:15 - Noon

Where: ARL Boston Animal Care and Adoption Center (10 Chandler St., Boston, MA)

During their visit, the Patriots Cheerleaders will be making toys for animals and also spending some time interacting with some shelter animals, which will hopefully include puppies!

Many members of the Patriots Cheerleading squad are avid animal lovers and suggested spending some time at ARL to give back and support animals in need, and ARL is excited to open up its Boston shelter for this opportunity.

ABOUT THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE OF BOSTON:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is an unwavering champion for animals in need, committed to keeping them safe and healthy in habitats and homes. Founded in 1899, ARL provides high quality veterinary care, adoption, and rescue services; while also confronting the root causes of animal cruelty and neglect through innovative community programs, police investigations, and public advocacy. In 2018, ARL served 17,000 animals throughout Massachusetts. ARL is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. We receive no government grants or public funding and rely solely on the generosity of individuals to support programs and services that help animals in need.
