ARL to Host Rabies/Microchip Clinic Appointment-only event open to Cape Cod pet owners

On Saturday, May 22, the Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) will host a rabies and microchip clinic for dog and cat owners on Cape Cod – the clinic is by appointment only.

Massachusetts law requires dogs and cats to have up-to-date rabies vaccines, and the cost for the vaccine will be $10, and an additional $20 for microchips.

Appointments and prepayment is required for the clinic, and Covid-19 screening questions and instructions will also be addressed during the registration process.

There are limited appointments available, and anyone interested in registering can do by clicking the link below:

ABOUT THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE OF BOSTON:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is an unwavering champion for animals in need, committed to keeping them safe and healthy in habitats and homes. Founded in 1899, ARL provides high-quality veterinary care, adoption, and rescue services; while also confronting the root causes of animal cruelty and neglect through innovative community programs, police investigations, and public advocacy. In 2020, ARL served nearly 17,000 animals throughout Massachusetts. ARL is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. The Animal Rescue League of Boston does not receive government grants or public funding (with the exception of limited COVID-19 relief funding) and relies on the generosity of our supporters to help animals in need.
