Pair of Special Senior Dogs Seeking New Home Together

Dogs recently lost owner, originally adopted by ARL in 2018

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is looking for a special family to open up their hearts and home for a bonded pair of senior dogs, this after recently losing their owner.

Franklin, a 9-year-old Sharpei, and Frieda, a 6-year-old Sharpei, are no strangers to ARL. The pair came to ARL initially in late 2018 as part of a transport of dogs from North Carolina and with their sweet demeanor were able to find a new home quickly.

Sadly, their owner recently passed away, and the pair are now looking for a home together to spend their retirement years.

Franklin and Frieda are bonded and need to be together. They are fun-loving and extremely friendly, but ARL understands that it takes a special home to take in not just one, but two, senior dogs. While healthy overall, the pair do have medical needs that will require attention upon adoption – Franklin is prone to ear infections, while Frieda's allergies can cause dry skin and/or ear infections.

Senior animals, like Franklin and Frieda, make wonderful pets, and typically do not require the attention, training and patience that comes with their younger counterparts. However, they are sometimes overlooked by potential adopters in search of puppies, kittens, or young adult animals.

Interested adopters can log onto arlboston.org to find more information on Franklin and Frieda.
