Edward Gorey House Partners with ARL for Adopt-a-Cat Month

Free family memberships offered with cat adoptions during June

June is Adopt-a-Cat month, and the Edward Gorey House is partnering with the Animal Rescue League of Boston's (ARL) Brewster Animal Care and Adoption Center, to promote cat adoption by offering free family memberships to those who adopt a cat from ARL during the month of June.

Edward Gorey, the famed author, illustrator, and playwright, was also a lifelong animal advocate, with a particular fondness for cats. The Edward Gorey House, located in Yarmouth and was the actual home of the late author, celebrates and preserves the life and works of Mr. Gorey, while also honoring his passion for animals.

ARL is thrilled to be a part of this unique opportunity, and encourages anyone interested in adopting a cat from ARL to log onto <https://www.edwardgoreyhouse.org/arl> for more information about this special partnership and to redeem the free family membership once the adoption process is completed.
