Truro Vineyards Hosting ARL Annual Event

Public invited to learn more of ARL's work to help animals in need on Cape Cod

For a second year, Truro Vineyards will be hosting the Animal Rescue League of Boston's (ARL) Cape Cod "Paws to Celebrate" event, highlighting the positive outcomes ARL has made possible on Cape Cod over the past year.

The event will take place on Thursday, September 15 from 6-8 p.m. at Truro Vineyards, located at 10 Shore Road in Truro.

The 21-plus event is $50 per person, and includes light bites from Blackfish Catering, a sampling of Truro Vineyards wine, live entertainment from Cape-native and American Idol contestant Natalia Bonfini, as well as a complementary ticket for a special Cape-centered raffle drawing!

While there will not be any ARL adoptable animals present, Truro Vineyards is dog-friendly, so attendees are invited to bring their pups along! Please note that dogs must remain leashed, display good manners, and do well with crowds.

Paws to Celebrate is an opportunity for ARL to connect with Cape residents to thank them for their support, and share ways to get involved with its programs that help animals and the people who love them on Cape Cod.

ABOUT THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE OF BOSTON:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) is an unwavering champion for animals in need, committed to keeping them safe and healthy in habitats and homes. Founded in 1899, ARL provides high-quality veterinary care, adoption, and rescue services; while also confronting the root causes of animal cruelty and neglect through innovative community programs, police investigations, and public advocacy. In 2021, ARL served over 23,000 animals throughout Massachusetts. ARL is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. The Animal Rescue League of Boston does not receive government grants or public funding and relies on the generosity of our supporters to help animals in need.
