Pitbulls Removed from Unsanitary Conditions Ready for Adoption

Dogs brought to ARL with varying medical needs

Six Pitbull-type dogs that were recently removed from a Malden home due to unsanitary conditions will soon be looking for new homes, this after the Animal Rescue League of Boston (ARL) first removed the dogs, and then provided treatment for various medical needs.

ARL invites members of the media to meet the dogs, learn more about their story and help break the stigma that many associate with these types of dogs.

Media Availability

When: Wednesday, June 14, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Where: ARL's Boston Animal Care and Adoption Center, 10 Chandler St., Boston

Upon arrival at ARL, several of the dogs were thin and borderline emaciated, one of the dogs required surgery for pyometra (a uterine infection that if left untreated could be life-threatening), and the majority of the animals had signs of living in unsanitary conditions including pressure sores, poor dental hygiene, and skin issues.

All of the dogs are incredibly friendly and will make great pets. ARL hopes to find homes for these animals sooner rather than later to allow the organization to free up precious kennel space and increase ARL's ability to take in more animals in need.

Visit arlboston.org to see when these dogs will be made available for adoption.
